

Morse Code (5 WPM) should be retained as a requirement for operating below 30 MHz. If the code requirement is abolished the Amateur Radio Service will be diluted with "CB" type operators and ham radio will no longer be taken seriously by the public. Hopefully, you will agree with me and continue to require the morse code for upgrading! Thank you!